Deep Breath---Long Pants---Decency

Diagrams of diaphragms were presented to the voice and diction class by Ward Rasmus, speech instructor, to clarify an explanation of breath control.

The point of his lecture, however, was put over by this imaginative instructor by word of mouth when he declared:

"If you do not take in a sufficient amount of air, your speech will come in short pants. This is not only inefficient . . . but indecent."

San Jose State college's 60-voice A Cappella choir will present its annual concert Wednesday night at 8:15 in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

Among the outstanding presentations will be a motet for double chorus, "An Apostrophe to the Heavenly Hosts," written by Beasley Willan, an American composer. One of the best-received compositions to be sung on last year's concert by the group was a similar motet for double chorus, a Bach composition.

The choir will present three groups of songs, 14 members in all. Tickets are priced at 40 cents, with proceeds going into a fund to sponsor choir tours.

Among composers whose works will be sung are Tchaikowsky, Palestrina, Corsi, Willan, Bach, Edward Grieg, Christiansen, Rachmaninoff, and Shvedoff.

All men students who have made application for NYA work this quarter must call for their work cards in the Dean of Men's office by 5 o'clock this afternoon.

LIBRARIANESS REPORTS

Betty Beck Takes Up New Duties At Fort Ord On April 5

By PEGGY RICHTER

From the ivy-clad buildings of Washington Square campus to the bustling activities of a selective service camp, Librarian Betty Beck reports April 5 at Fort Ord to take up her new duties in organizing library facilities for draftees.

"It is with regret that I leave San Jose State college, but I am looking forward to my new position," Miss Beck said in recalling four years of library work here.

The attractive librarianess applied for the position last December and was personally interviewed in February. Miss Winifred Seeley, a San Francisco high school librarian, was selected to accompany Miss Beck and work with her at the camp. Living quarters for the two librarians and four or five hostesses will be furnished by the army.

Miss Beck believes that the new library will be chiefly composed of recreational reading; it will include books of fiction, travel, and biography.

Anticipating a return to scenic spots of the Monterey peninsula which she has seen only briefly, Miss Beck plans on spending her free hours in Carmel, Pacific Grove and Monterey.

Following graduation from the University of Nebraska, Miss Beck was employed in library work at Simmons college in Boston, Massachusetts.

She has spent the last four years in San Jose working in the college library following her position in Boston.

SPARDI GRAS COMMITTEE DISCUSSES PROFIT TAX ON CONCESSION GROUPS

Proposal of a 20 per cent tax on all profits over 10 dollars by concessions during Spardi Gras, May 2, was discussed at a Spardi Gras committee meeting last week.

It was also proposed that the 5 o'clock supper in the rear quad that day be raised from 5 cents to 10 cents and tickets for the affair be sold in advance.

The new tax rate and the increase in the supper price will be used to help pay for the expenses of the carnival, announce Spardi Gras committee members. In the past expenses for the event have been carried by Revelries, student musical production.

Sign-up dates for food and game concessions were announced as Wednesday for food and the following Wednesday, April 9, for games. Fraternities, sororities and organizations planning on having concessions will be given only those days to sign up, according to committee men.

DR. MacQUARRIE ATTENDS MEETING IN SACRAMENTO

President Thomas W. MacQuarrie left yesterday for Sacramento to attend a meeting of California state college presidents for a discussion of the Kellems-Robertson bill. This bill advocates the abolition of Santa Barbara State college as such and makes it a branch of the University of California.

Upon his return to San Jose, Dr. MacQuarrie will attend a meeting of the state college and junior college faculty members here at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in room 24. The Kellem-Robertson measure will be the topic of discussion at the meeting which will be led by Dr. E. H. Staffelsbach, head of the Education and Teacher Training department.

Under this proposal, which is listed as Assembly Bill 1931, Santa Barbara State would be taken from the control of the state legislature and would be directed by the Regents of the University of California or its Academic Senate.

Exchange Returns Money, Unsold Texts

Student Book Exchange is returning unsold books and money today and will continue the distribution through tomorrow, according to Fernando Taggawa, assistant service manager.

The desk will be open from 9 until 4.

To facilitate returns and distributions, students must present their slips at the desk.

Music Contest Entries Due Today At 5

Today at 5 o'clock is the deadline for entries in the Music department's original composition contest, declares George W. Matthews of the Music faculty in charge of the competition.

Students may make as many entries as they desire, but only one award will be received by an individual.

Four divisions in the contest are piano solo, instrumental ensemble, vocal solo, and vocal ensemble.

There are prizes in each class, ten, three, and two dollars, plus a sweepstakes award. An exact amount has not yet been determined for the latter which will be an award for the best of the four first-prize winning compositions.

All entries should be turned in to the Music office on regulation manuscript paper. Entrants are warned not to put their names on their work, Matthews states, as they remain anonymous until after judging.

Competition is open to the whole student body.

Each Should Do His Part

On Wednesday of this week some 3500 students will be given an opportunity to elect the officers who will lead the four classes through the spring quarter, the most active quarter of the school year.

Every time such an election is held on the campus the most outstanding feature of the event is the lack of interest which students take in it. They may pass the polls a dozen times during the day, but they will not take time to stop and cast their vote.

If asked why they didn't cast a ballot they reply that one vote more or less won't matter, which can mean either that they were too lazy to bother voting or that they just didn't care. It is quite true that one vote may not matter but when 20 or 30 or 100 people feel that way it does make a great deal of difference.

None of us have much respect for the person who neglects to vote at the gubernatorial or presidential elections, for we feel that he is overlooking one of his most important duties as a citizen. The situation here is very little different. The government of the college rests upon the students, and it is up to them to make a go of it.

So when Wednesday comes and the election booths are erected once again, make use of them; and let's all get together to make this the biggest election that has ever been held on the campus.

—Irwin.

The Bystander

If San Jose State college is accepted into the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher schools, it will be of great importance to a great many students now enrolled that want to join in some branch of the military service.

Delegates from the association visited the campus Friday to give the institution the "once over" before they meet in April to discuss San Jose's application.

Because we failed to appear on any recognized list of colleges and universities, a great many students were disappointed recently when it came to taking examinations for some branch of the service. They were not allowed by officials to take the tests because they did not attend or graduate from a recognized college.

The administration has gone to a great deal of trouble and time in trying to get San Jose State college on a recognized list. They now hope they have accomplished the deed.

On April 7, Dr. Raymond Moser of the college psychology department will travel to Spokane, Washington to attend the meeting of the association. At this gathering this institution's application will be on the coals.

The administration feels that this so important that telegrams will be sent by Dr. Moser from the Northern city to recruiting headquarters if the association plans to make San Jose State college one of them.

SAN FRANCISCO has been under fire recently because of the publicity given to the gangs of "dead end" kids uncovered in the slum areas. These gangs are not a new outgrowth, but have been in formation over a long period of time. Apparently San Francisco does not have adequate recreation facilities for the youth of the town.

San Jose residents, who read of the San Francisco situation, have nothing to feel smug about, for in time we may be faced with a similar situation. Undoubtedly San Jose has similar gangs, but they have not received the same publicity.

The recent decision to cut the local WPA recreation program comes at a particularly inopportune time. San Francisco has awakened to the need of new recreational facilities and may add to them, while here we are curtailing the only effective program in operation at this time.

The present WPA recreation program, without facing a cut, is inadequate to reach all the groups it should in a city of this size. With an approximate 50 per cent cut of recreation appropriations in the offing, the local delinquency situation may well become extreme.

With this in view, the Civitan Boy's Clubs organized under the direction of Boxing Coach DeWitt Portal and tutored by college boxers and physical education majors, assumes added importance. The clubs' aim is to reach boys in the delinquency areas that are not ordinarily affected by the WPA or school programs.

But with the WPA reduction, the Civitan movement should be enormously expanded. At present there are about 14 clubs operating under the direction of college students. There should be many more in a city of this size.

With WPA funds being withdrawn, it should be up to the city government to approve additional recreational funds. The Civitan Boys' Clubs can use equipment, and above all additional directors. The City Council should provide them or else a recreation program of its own. The cost of such preventive recreation will be far cheaper in the long run, than if we allow juvenile delinquency to seriously increase here.

San Jose State Wins CCAA Championships In Wrestling, Boxing, Badminton Doubles

Spartan Daily Sports

SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA, MONDAY, MARCH 31, 1941

CCAA Coaches' Conference

JOHN ALLEN RECEIVES TWO HONORS; WINNING TEAMS TO GET TROPHIES

John Allen of San Jose received two belated awards at the California Collegiate Athletic association coaches' conference held here over the week-end, being named all-conference end on the championship football team and all-conference guard on the co-champion basketball squad.

Allen was the only San Jose player named on the basketball first string, but three other Spartans won football honors. Bob Hamill was chosen all-conference tackle; Henry Cook, guard; and Bud Vigen, halfback.

Capt. Hal Carruth of San Jose made the second basketball team as forward and Menno Siebert was named the second team center.

The coaches decided to award perpetual trophies to championship winners in 12 sports. San Jose will be the first to hold the grid award, and San Diego and San Jose will divide the time in keeping the cañon trophy.

Preliminary steps were taken to enlarge the CCAA, but the coaches stuck to the original rule prohibiting expansion until 1942.

GOLFERS BEAT GOLDEN BEARS

Varsity golfers won one and lost one against major opponents last week, beating the University of California on Thursday and losing to Stanford on Saturday.

In the Bear matches the Spartans won by a score of 6½ to 2½ with Jack Bariteau shooting low score of 72. Warner Keeley and Bob Burchfiel followed with scores of 74.

Against Stanford the Spartans dropped all nine points in the doubles and trailed 13 to 5 in the singles in some closely contested matches.

Bariteau again was San Jose's low scoring ace with another 72. Keeley and Burchfiel trailed him with 75's.

Although the San Joseans lost by the seemingly lop-sided score of 22 to 5 to Stanford, the matches were much closer than the score indicates.

Meet Cancelled

The dual meet scheduled for Saturday morning between the Spartan varsity and the California Poly Mustangs was called off because of a wet track. This meet would have been the initial appearance of Coach Tiny Hartruff's cindermen this year.

Baseball

Spartan-Fresno Games Postponed Because Of Rain

Pete "Khaki" Filice, Spartan hurler, pitched a no-hit no-run game against Fresno State college's Bulldogs—for two-thirds of an inning Friday.

Then the rains came, forcing postponement of the first of a two-game series that barely got under way.

Filice had pitched to two batters. The teams were scheduled to hook up in a doubleheader on Saturday, but continued rains forced cancellation of that arrangement.

NO DATE SET

Just when the games will be played has not been decided upon by the coaches of the two colleges.

Tomorrow afternoon, weather permitting, the Spartans go after their third straight victory when they face the University of California Bears in Berkeley.

Latest Spartan win was over the University of San Francisco Dons Thursday. The score was 4 to 0.

Jack Raine and Fred Lindsey, the latter an outfielder, combined to pitch four-hit ball for San Jose. Raine allowed two hits in five innings, Lindsey the same number in four.

San Jose reached Cliff Fisk, starting Don hurler, and his successor, Dempsey, for six hits.

ED HUNT STARS

Ed Hunt, San Jose shortstop, came out of a hitting slump with a bang, securing four of the six Spartan hits in four tries, and scoring three runs.

Starting Saturday, the Spartans face a heavy schedule. Saturday's opponents will be San Francisco State, over whom the Spartans hold a 5 to 4 early season win.

John Allen, third baseman, continues to lead Spartan batters for the season with a .450 average. In six CCAA games Allen is smashing the ball for a .571 clip.

Gauchos Strong

Fairley, Nickel Win Badminton Doubles Crown

San Jose State's three-man gymnastics team succumbed to a strong seven-man team from Santa Barbara State by the unofficial score of 47-20. Santa Barbara captured five first places. Ray Fahn captured two individual championships for the Spartans.

San Diego, last year's winner and defending champions did not enter this year's contest.

Fahn took first place in the tumbling and horizontal bar. Captain Bud Brown of Santa Barbara captured the all around championship taking first in the rope climb and placing in the other events.

BADMINTON

Jim Fairley and Lyman Nickel kept San Jose State in the running when they set down Shepard and Truglio of Santa Barbara State 15-2 and 15-5 to win the doubles badminton championship.

Stan Webb, San Jose's top singles man, lost to Bill Kirkeeng of San Diego in the deciding match for the singles championship. Webb defeated Hill of San Diego and Bradley of Santa Barbara to gain the finals.

FENCING

Led by Sid Getsvoet, who won all his bouts, Santa Barbara State unofficially captured the team fencing championship. Getsvoet, followed closely by teammate John Stratton, took first in the foil, epee, and sabre.

Harold Taylor, Spartan fencer, tied for second in the sabre winning two out of three bouts.

Spartan Wrestlers Coast To Easy Win

Winning every match Coach Sam Della Maggiore's Spartan wrestlers coasted to an easy 28-0 win over the Oakland YMCA last week.

The results:
128 pounds—Y. Uchida (SJ) def. Bud Bould (C) by fall.

136 pounds—Ivan Olsen (SJ) def. A. Marioni (C) by fall.

160 pounds—Don Carmean (SJ) def. Ben Cohen (C) by fall.

155 pounds—Dave Hines (SJ) def. Al Gallagher (C) by fall.

175 pounds—Bob Riddle (SJ) def. King Diaz (C) by fall.

Heavyweights—Gray McConnell (SJ) def. Tony Crowell (C), decision.

Spartans Reach Semi-Finals In Nationals; Lose

San Jose State college's two boxers entered in the National Collegiate boxing tournament at State college, Pa., reached the semi-finals last week but lost close decisions before getting to the finals.

Bob Webber, who won the 120-pound Pacific Coast Intercollegiate crown in Sacramento, decisioned Jack Gibson of Wisconsin in one of the best bouts of the evening last Thursday. He dropped a close decision Friday, however, to Don Harper of Southwestern Louisiana.

Dick Miyagawa, 127-pounder, won his first bout from Alfred Siskin of City College of New York, but lost to Frank Kara of Idaho the following night.

Coach DeWitt Portal, Webber, and Miyagawa are expected back in San Jose this week, probably Wednesday.

BLESHEMEN FACE DONS TODAY IN SAN FRANCISCO

San Jose State college's 1941 varsity tennis team will try to make it three straight wins when it plays a return match with University of San Francisco in San Francisco today.

The Spartans handed the University of Santa Clara netters a 7-2 defeat on the local courts last week. This was the second win for Coach T. Erwin Blesh's men in their quest for the championship of the Northern California Intercollegiate Tennis conference, which includes St. Mary's, San Francisco State, University of San Francisco, and Santa Clara. During the years of 1936, 1937, and 1938 the State netmen won the title.

Tomorrow the Bleshe men engage the St. Mary's aggregation on the Gaels' court.

Frosh Nine Plays Today At San Mateo

Leroy Zimmerman's frosh baseballers will go to San Mateo this afternoon to play San Mateo Junior college.

If the first-year men win today's game from the Bulldogs it will be their second victory.

Wrestling, Boxing

Sarkisian Scores Two TKO's; Kemper Fight Exciting

The Spartans took six out of eight wrestling events during the CCAA tournament, three of them by forfeit, and won six out of nine boxing matches.

Outstanding individual performer was Jack Sarkisian, 175-pound San Jose boxer, who scored two technical knockouts. He TKO'd Lieberman of Santa Barbara in the second round the opening evening, and knocked Alan Boyd of Fresno down twice in the initial round to gain a TKO in the finals.

Most exciting bout in the finals was in the heavyweight class between Jack Kemper of San Jose and Kelley Seay, 210-pounder from San Diego. Seay held the edge in the first round but Kemper came back in the second to almost drop his opponent. He gained enough points from the judges in that round to win the crown.

Wrestling results in the finals:
121-pound class—Con Lacy, (SJ) won uncontested.

128—Y. Uchida (SJ), won uncontested.

136—Ivan Olson (SJ), won by fall over Dick St. John (SD). Time: 4 minutes, 26 seconds.

Limited Number Of Tickets Left For Extravaganza

Only a few tickets remain for the April 18 performance of "Isle of the Pacific," water pageant, to be presented by the Women's Swim club in the college pool, according to June Bennett, ticket chairman.

Those persons who wish to see the extravaganza on April 16 or 17 are urged to secure their tickets immediately as they are selling rapidly. Tickets are only 10 cents, as the club plans to make no profit from the production. Tickets may be secured in the women's physical education office, the Student Union, at the swimming pool or from members of the cast.

The cover design for the programs have been selected by the Swim Club. The winning design was submitted by Patricia Todd. It is a block print portraying a native woman in an island setting. The design was selected on a basis of workmanship, design, and how well it depicted the theme of the extravaganza.

Two other broadcasts of a brass choir, and string ensemble will be sent out that week. Adolph Otterstein, music head, will direct the orchestra, which will play Beethoven's "Eroica Symphony". Maurine Thompson, music instructor, is in charge of the Madrigal choir which will feature the songs of Schubert. Mozart's "Flute Concerto in D", will also be played.

The student cast of 16 characters was chosen by tryouts open to the whole student body last quarter. Included on the list are Major West as Beethoven, Joseph Juracich as Mozart, and John Shepherd as Schubert.

Harrison McCreath will have an all important part as the announcer who sets the mood for each scene and ties the story together, according to Ray Irwin, speech instructor and director of the dramatization.

The public is invited to attend the performance which will have a visible audience. There will be 600 music faculty delegates and 500 students from Utah, Arizona, California, Nevada, Phillipine Islands, Hawaii and Alaska, declares Otterstein.

LYMAN DAUGHERTY AUTHOR OF NEW BOOK ON PRE-HISTORIC FLORA

By GEORGE MORRIS

Bringing honor to its author and through his association here, honor to San Jose State college, comes a new scientific book just off the press of the Carnegie Institute of Washington.

"Triassic Flora of Arizona" by Lyman H. Daugherty, assistant professor of botany, is the result of ten years of intensive research on his subject which covers periods such as the Upper Triassic, 180 to 200 million years ago.

PIANO STUDENT FEATURED IN MUSIC RECITAL

Miss Frances Robinson of the Music faculty will present her advanced students of string instruments Friday night in the Little Theater at 8:15 in the Sixth Annual Evening of Chamber Music.

Charles Fulkerson, senior piano student, will be featured soloist of the evening, playing the Bach Piano Concerto in D Minor, accompanied by a twenty-piece string orchestra.

Two faculty members will assist. Benning Dexter will play the piano part to the "Trout Quintet" by Schubert, and Mrs. Lydia Boothby, harpist, will play in the Goossens trio for harp, violin and flute. Mrs. Boothby, a new member of the music faculty, is a former member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Other works by Ravel, Bach and Beethoven will round out the program, with 30 student musicians participating. Miss Robinson says of the program, "We think we have succeeded in assembling one of the best programs in points of general interest and variety of any which we have presented at the college."

This book is undoubtedly the most important publication on that aspect of fossil botany in the last 35 years, according to Dr. Robert D. Rhodes of the San Jose State Biology department. Daugherty is considered the expert on fossil plants of the Triassic of North America, and would, in Dr. Rhodes' opinion, be listed in the group of most famous Paleobotanists. Interesting news to science students here is the information that a cycad from the Petrified Forest of Arizona has just been received by Daugherty.
